Rafters

Welcome to your Rafters Wedding...
Where Rustic meets Industrial ...

Rafters is a premier Bucks County Wedding venue, located in historic Newtown Bucks County, PA. Rafters provides you with a blank palate for you to truly design and customize your day to meet your style and budget.

Rafters Venue offers just shy of 10,000 square feet of newly constructed & thoughtfully designed event space. Rafters features a beautiful open to the ceiling industrial design blended with rustic accents. Gorgeous real hardwood floors throughout the main event space, along with beautiful new exposed spiral duct work, and modern yet rustic influenced lighting fixtures. Our rustic and industrial blended design features a large open main space that easily accommodates a variety of layouts. Of course we've got a beautiful private suite available complete with crystal chandelier!

Rafters is an open catering venue. At Rafters you can use any licensed and insured caterer, so feel free to select the caterer that best first your taste, budget and food style. No need to worry, we've got a beautiful well equipped professional catering space available, so whatever your food taste your menu will be perfectly executed. We also understand that sometimes, selecting from the many wonderful caterers available can seem daunting, so we've also paired with a few of the best and fan favorites to create package offerings in addition to our standard pricing options.

Rafters is family owned and operated and only hosts one event per day, so our focus is on you !
